Clarinet and piano duo: Jože Kotar and Luca Ferrini

Clarinetist Jože Kotar and pianist Luca Ferrini have been playing together for more than ten years. Their repertoire ranges from the classical period to the contemporaries but they prefer to perform modern and contemporary music, written in "traditional" style, jazz and live electronics. For the next seasons they are going to prepare a programme entitled "Music from the Islands", dedicated to music for clarinet and piano written by composers who live, work or come from the European islands

Jože Kotar e Luca Ferrini will be in the next days guests at the Summartónar Festival 2015 in the Faroe Islands. For this occasion they will perform a program of Italian, Danish and Slovenian music and are going to premiere a work by the Faroese composer Teitur Lassen.

Jože Kotar became principal clarinetist of the RTV Slovenia Symphony Orchestra in 2007 after serving in that role at the Slovenian Philharmonic Orchestra for twelve years. Tenured professor at the Academy of Music in Ljubljana, he performs and leads seminars in Slovenia and abroad (Europe, USA, South America).

Luca Ferrini, pianist, harpsichordist and organist from Monfalcone (Italy) performed in more than thousand concerts as soloist, chamber musician and with orchestra in Europe, Asia and Central America. He recorded 20 CDs and made recordings with a variety of European broadcasting companies.

At the end of the evening you are all invited to enjoy light refreshments
